FREE SPIRIT Treatment Philosophy

Before you choose your Therapy, please be absolutely aware, that you have to be ready to work on yourself! Whatever Therapy you'd like to choose, be aware, that we don't provide an injection and your wish is instantly granted or your pain is temporarily gone. We work with you if you are ready to really change something in your life, what actually is the only way to get rid of disease, pain or problems. Sometimes it is hard work and sometimes it is just a little push from our side, to let you realize what is going wrong in your life.

The evaluation in the Healing Sector is based on two components: The obligation to be willing to be open to change and the obligation to practice change for results.

Before you choose your Therapy or Treatment, we offer a free counseling, where we can discuss your case and where you can ask all questions you have in your mind.

All of these treatments will increase your Self-Healing-Powers and will help us to find the source of your Problem and to heal it from there, from the beginning.

We do not heal symptoms; we empower the healing process from working on the real reason of the symptoms!
